Student support

Your physical and mental health

University life is full of ups and downs. We have a range of support available to all students, including undergraduate, postgraduate, home and international, to help you stay well so you can get the most out of your time here.

Emergency help

Emergency contact numbers and University out-of-hours contacts.

Access health services

We offer a full NHS doctor service to all students and their families who live locally.

Disability support

Get support with your studies if you have a disability or long-term health condition.

Mental health support

Find out what mental health support services are available and how to get a referral.

Unacceptable behaviours

How to report, and get support for, unacceptable behaviour. This includes bullying and harassment, sexual misconduct and violent behaviour.

Sexual violence support service
